

NEW WIRELESS TELEGRAPH STATION NEARLY READY

ARTHUR RAYCRAFT PUTTING FINISHING TOUCHES ON APPARATUS.

Within the coming week southern Nevada will boast of the only wireless stations in this state. For the past year Arthur Raycraft has been tinkering away on two wireless stations, one in this city and the other in Manhattan. He is an old time telegraph operator and consequently is familiar with the work. With the advent of wireless telegraphy, Mr. Raycraft immediately started to study the subject and is now conversant with all the little details of the question.

His station at Manhattan is just about completed while the local apparatus is fast being placed in shape. Yesterday the 100 foot mast was erected and all the guy ropes securely anchored down. An induction coil of powerful voltage has been received and will be placed in position, either today or tomorrow.

All that remains to be done now is to place the telegraphing instruments in commission and connect the wires with the mast. The sending station will be located in Mr. Raycraft's residence, which is about 100 feet distant from the mast.

As soon as the apparatus is in working order a detailed description of the mechanism will be given together with the first messages received and the wireless station that is communicated with.

LITTLE BIHEL SISTERS AT THE BUTLER TODAY

FORMER FAVORITES HAVE CON-
TRACT TO PLAY RETURN ENGAGEMENT.

A big crowd enjoyed one of the best shows of the season at the Butler theater last night. The pictures were all good. "Up a Tree," a swell Biograph comedy, was the feature picture and it was a scream from beginning to the end. Commencing at the matinee today there will be another entire change of pictures. The Bihel sisters open a week's engagement at the matinee today. The come to Tonopah with new acts and songs. For their opening act they will introduce the "Yama Yama Girls," which is featured in the big musical comedy entitled, "Top of the World." These little girls need no introduction to the people of Tonopah as they are as clever and entertaining children as ever heard here. They will appear at the first show this afternoon and at each evening performance, changing their program four times a week. The admission will be the same, ten cents.

SLICK MERRILL WANTS A FIGHT WITH MINNICK

MANAGER FOR COLORED FIGHT-
ER ISSUES A CHALLENGE
FOR 20-ROUND BOUT.

Slick Merrill, the colored fighter has been endeavoring for the past few months to secure a match with any local fighter. He has issued any number of challenges, none of which have been accepted. He is very anxious to secure a match with Jack Minnick of the Big Casino, who has quite a record in the pugilistic world, having put several prominent fighters to sleep. Slick is backed by D. M. Fitzgerald, who last evening sent the following challenge to this office:

Sporting Editor Bonanza: On behalf of Slick Merrill I desire to challenge Jack Minnick to a twenty-round bout at catch weights, for a purse ranging anywhere from $250 to $1,000. The fight to be held at any date and place which may be arranged later.

PROSPECTORS ANSWERING CALL OF THE DESERT

SEVERAL OUTFITS HAVE DE-
PARTED FOR SUMMER'S STAY
IN UNKNOWN DISTRICTS.

With the advent of the warm weather the call of the desert is being felt in Tonopah as well as the outside camps. Prospectors who have been wintering in town have been busily preparing their outfits for another six months and many such outfits have already departed for parts unknown. The first to leave for the desert vastness was Shorty Harris, the discoverer of Bullfrog and his partner, John Franks. They have been followed by other desert rats from this city and the next week will witness additional fortune seekers departing.

Nearly all of the lone wanderers were forced to winter in the various desert towns last winter on account of the severity of the season. This year, many believe they will be allowed to seek new mines the entire twelve months, as two hard winters very seldom follow in succession.

Hence the preparations for an indefinite stay. Burros are already becoming scarce although the price on these ships of the desert have not advanced.

PUPILS OF THE PRIMARY GRADES ARE REAL FAIRIES

CANTATA AT NEVADA THEATER
LAST NIGHT DRAWS A GOOD CROWD.

One hundred and fifty little fairies entertained at the Nevada theater last evening to a well filled house. The little tots were letter perfect in their lines and songs and great credit is due to Mrs. W. L. Berry, who had charge of the cantata.

It is almost a superhuman task to take a bunch of youngsters and drill them and takes a person with considerable patience to make the affair a success.

The queen of fairyland, little Miss Ethel Robb, acted her part like an actress of years of experience and her efforts were greatly appreciated by the audience. The rest of the cast, too, is deserving of applause. The sweet voices of the children, all of whom are from the primary grades of the Tonopah schools, made quite a hit, and those who missed the performance will surely regret it.

MIDWAY WILL RESUME WORK ON 1035 LEVEL

WHEN AIR PIPE IS COMPLETED
WORK WILL BE RUSHED AT THIS DEPTH.

Probably the most important news received from the Midway in a long time is contained in the announcement that preparations are in progress for the resumption of operations on the 1035-foot level, the deepest workings in the mine, and about as soon as the air pipe can be installed operations will be pushed at this depth. It is thought that everything will be in readiness within the next two or three days, when prospecting work will be taken up from the crosscut from the bottom of the winze sent down from the 835-level. This crosscut is out north a distance of about 300 feet from the winze, and at a point 50 feet back of the face several very promising stringers of quartz, carrying values, were cut. It is the intention to start east and west drifts on these stringers and prospect them, as they occur in very favorable formations. The crosscut on the 1045-foot level passed through an exceedingly strong vein of quartz, showing some values, but the stringers to be followed lie north of the big ledge.

BLOOMIE WAS HYPNOTIZED BY A BOOK AGENT

PURCHASED A SET OF BOOKS
AND DIDN'T KNOW A THING ABOUT IT.

A crowd of the old-timers were congregated in the lobby of the Mizpah hotel yesterday and the talk turned to hypnotism and the efforts of the French professor who was at the Nevada theater last week. A few in the crowd admitted having been hypnotized at one time or another during their lives but it remained for Charles Blumenthal to relate his experience in this line. Sure enough he had been hypnotized and it cost him about $40.

"It happened," said Charlie, when I was conducting the Frisco store in the old days. One afternoon a book agent, who had drifted into town, happened into the store. He was sent back into my office, which consisted of a couple of boxes for a desk and a safe. After a short conversation, of which I have no recollection, the agent departed. In about three weeks I received a choice consignment of books, along with a draft for $40 and an order bearing my signature. I had ordered the books while under that fellow's will and of course had to pay for them. They were placed in the cellar and I guess that they are there still, for I never had the nerve to read them.

"Hypnotism is all right and is a good thing in certain cases, but since that time I have never had any use for the hypnotic professors, as I don't want any more books."
